Miss Teresa Cyrus, 15, of future Homemakers of America has been named CO-ED Correspondent for the 1974-1975 school year, according to an announcement by Midge Richardson editor of Co-Ed Magazine. Co-Ed, published nationally by Scholastic Magazines, Inc., for home economics students, contains features on personal development, careers and consumer awareness as well as the latest trends in fashion, food, beauty, and home furnishings.

Teresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cyrus, is a sophomore at Appomatox County High School. She was appointed correspondent by Mrs. Madeline Thomas, her home economics teacher.

Selected for qualities of leadership and enthusiasm for home economics, she will serve as junior adviser to Co-Ed editors. Like the other Co-Ed Correspondents throughout the United States and Canada, she will keep the editors informed of activities at her school.

Next publication of a special Co-Ed Correspondent certificate will be made to Teresa in the next monthly FHA meeting by Carla Varner, State FHA President.

VA News

Don't let a lost birth certificate or marriage license deter you from seeking benefits, the Veterans Administration today advised eligible veterans, dependents and survivors.

VA regional office in Roanoke said less formal proof of marriage and birth is acceptable when this information is needed to establish claims for bigger checks. Formerly the VA required all statements of marriages and births to be supported by formalized documentary evidence.

VA also pointed out a veteran's or widow's certified statement of marriage is now sufficient on applications for compensation and education benefits for veterans, widows and orphaned children - - provided neither the veteran nor the spouse has been married before and VA has no contradictory information on file.

A certified statement also is acceptable regarding birth of a child of a child of a veteran's marriage and as proof of age and relationship.
